

CURRICULUM VITAE

PERSONAL INFO

Name: Lucijan CENCIČ

Nationality: Slovenian

PRESENT POSITION

- Undersecretary, Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Food, Slovenia

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Academic qualifications: From 1988 to September 1989, he obtained a post graduate scholarship at University of Udine (Italy).

WORK EXPERIENCE

Currently, L.C. works at Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Food of Republic of Slovenija as an Undersecretary. He is working on different subjects in the field of food processing in food industry. He is also in charge of preparing state regulations for food standards, specially for meat sector and regulations for special agricultural products.

L.C. was involved as team head of the project: "Vitamin and mineral products made with alternative sweeteners", promoted by the pharmaceutical industry KRKA (Novo Mesto, Slovenia). is carrying out some collaborative research works with the Department of Food Science of Udine University.

After having done PhD degree, during the 1996 L.C. was involved as a consultant in a research work for sensorial and instrumental evaluation of pasta products sold in Slovenia for Zavod za Zdravstveno Varstvo Nova Gorica (Institute for Health Control).

From March 1990 to April 1993, L.C. was employed at the Gusparo S.p.A., a patisserie products factory (Coseano, Udine, Italy) as production director.

From September 1989 to February 1990, L.C. worked as head assistant of Quality Control section at Zito, Ljubljana (former Yugoslavia at that time) on bread flour, bread, bakery products and biscuits production.

After having passed professional engineer exam, from October 1984 to 1988 Lucijan Cencič worked at Zito, Ljubljana (YU), as chief of production of pasta, and then as chief of department of frozen pastes at the same factory.

After the military, Lucijan Cencič worked from July 1983 to October 1984 in Živilski kombinat Vipava, TOZD Sadje, as a technologist for fruit refrigeration processes.